

TRAFFIC CODE
AMENDED BY
CITY COUNCILWAY DRIVING ON
SIGNATED STREETS
BECOMES OFFICIAL

City council passed an ordinance at their meeting Monday amending the traffic code of Greencastle, in which it is a violation of the law to go the wrong way on one way streets, which have been used as an experiment. The matter of the one way streets has worked out well and the council saw no reason to make the ordinance permanent.

Council, all members being present, passed the claim ordinance and transacted routine business. Coming under this heading was the matter of building permits of which there were several. They included a new house on Walnut street east of F. E. McCallie. This is the lot beyond the stand. This section is being opened by Cooper and will make an addition to the city once the buildings are completed. It is understood that other dwellings are being planned for the section.

Permits were also granted to Taylor to re-roof the Presbyterian church to cost $2500; H. Williams to make repairs to apartment at Seminary and easting $500; Work and shop by Phil Scroggins on Highland street; to make new across the side walk at 607 Anderson street by Rex and to cut side walk to drain at Maple and Ohio by Edward Cunningham.

There will come before the session of the council, the ordinance of a zoning ordinance, all ready for presentation will define the two zones, residential and commercial. There will be three sections, the downtown area, which will include considerable territory outside the square business district. It will run to the north city, including Jackson street, there will be a business section at the Y on east Washington street and the third one will be south Greencastle. All other areas will be included in the residential part of the city.

Under the zoning ordinance all building can be controlled. The ordinance will be in effect from the side walk, from the street and from any other building will be controlled strictly by council permits and it should be highly satisfactory in this way, and most cities have been doing away with any kind of building program.

MERCURY SLIDES
TO 45 MINIMUM

The temperature slipped downward to a minimum of 45 degrees during the night but at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning The Daily Banner thermometer registered 57, a rise of 12 degrees. Indications were that the cool snap of the past two days will be over by tomorrow.

Monday's maximum was only 68 which is quite a difference from the high 90 temperature that have prevailed in this community most of the time since the first of August.

Several residents reported that they started furnace fires and others said they were busy getting their heating equipment in readiness for the fall and winter seasons.

Claude Query
Lodged In Jail

Claude Query, who has had several encounters with the law, was in jail Tuesday morning pending filing of charges after being arrested Monday night by city police.

Police reported that Query was intoxicated Monday evening and was creating a disturbance at his home on south Crown street. The police were called about 9:40 p. m. and went to the home but Query was inside. Believing he had quieted down, the officers returned to headquarters only to be called back a second time. On this trip, it was said Query threatened the police with a shotgun. However, the weapon was taken away from him and he was given a ride to the county jail.

Parents Guests
Of Boys' Club

The Franklin township Boys' 4-H Club entertained their parents at a pitch in supper in the basement of the Christian church in Roachdale on the evening of September 10th at 7:30 p. m. After a bountiful supper the program was started by the president, Junior Myers, who introduced Rev. Leonard Wymore who gave the devotion. The roll call and the minutes of the last meeting were then read by the secretary, James Robbins. A welcome to the parents was extended by Donald Hymer, and that welcome was accepted for the parents by Mrs. Fred Secrist. The president then introduced James Risk, one of the local adult leaders who then took charge of the meeting. A few remarks were made regarding the past year's work and some of the special awards which were won by members of that club. Mr. Risk gave a few interesting remarks regarding the need for agriculture training in the schools and the value of 4-H Club work in keeping the boys interested in staying on the farm after their school days are over.

Warren Buser, co-leader of the club was introduced and spoke briefly to the members and their parents. Among the special guests present who were introduced and spoke to the gathering were Gene Harlan, county 4-H club agent, and Earl Breedlove, president of the Franklin Township Farm Bureau. The speaker of the evening was Kenneth Ramsey of Russellville, who is the vocational agriculture teacher at Green township in Parke county. Mr. Ramsey took the crowd on a very interesting and entertaining air trip to the islands of Hawaii. The unique way in which the talk was presented gave the people much of an insight into the lives of the people who live on those peaceful islands.

Piano music was provided for the meeting by Miss Diana Young of Roachdale. The club president ended the meeting by announcing the time and date of the next meeting and by thanking all who helped in making the meeting a success and by expressing his gratitude to Rev. Wymore and to Miss Young for their participation in the meeting. It is hoped that this will be an annual affair and will be looked forward to by all of the club boys and their families.

Soil Tour Was Held Monday

Considerable interest in the work being done on the Soil Conservation Test Demonstration farms in the county was exhibited on a tour of the farms in northern Putnam County on Monday, September 15th.

Approximately 40 farmers saw the effects of pasture treatment of the Zannie Garriott farm in Franklin township. On the farm of Frank Everman, J. W. On the Everman farm early maturing experimental hybrid corn demonstrations were seen as well as a Ladino-Red Clover mixture for rotation hay and pasture.

At the last stop on the tour on the farm of Harry McCabe in Clinton township a complete conservation plan in operation was shown the group. Very definite results from fertilizing pastures were evident as well as decreased erosion of the use of terraces.

Another tour of the demonstration farms in southern Putnam County has been scheduled for Monday, September 22nd starting at the David Grimes farm at 10:30 D.S.T. Other farms will be Doris Salsman, Victor Sutherland, Clayton Cash, Leonard Mara and Glendon Herbert.

County Groups
Elect Delegates

Putnam county's organized groups held a meeting in the assembly room of the court house Monday evening for the purpose of electing delegates to the district meeting of the Indiana State Fair Board organization.

Under a new law enacted by the last legislature, each congressional district is permitted one representative on the State Fair Board, along with appointive members and the election of this member involves organized groups in each county and then the delegates from the counties elect a district representative.

Among those elected at Monday evening's meeting were Earl Runten, Miss Elizabeth Riden, Roy C. Sutherland, Earl Allen, James Myers, Mrs. Carl Myers, John Ames, Drake Brookshire, Herschel Knoll, Thomas Hendricks, Gerald Clodfelder, and C. J. Ragan. Probably one other delegate will be named.

The above represent various clubs or organized groups in the county such as beef and dairy clubs, horticultural and home economic clubs, horse organizations, swine and other groups which meet regularly.

The district meeting will be held at the call of the Lt. Governor and will be held some time in the future.

Grain Prices
In Sharp Drop

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Grain prices skidded sharply on the Chicago Board of Trade today under the impact of a government request for increased margins and down payments in grain futures transactions.

At the mid-session point in today's trading wheat was 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents below yesterday's close.

Corn prices, too, hit the skids. September corn, which yesterday hit an all-time high of $2.65 1/4 a bushel, was down 5 cents to $2.60 1/4 at mid-session. September wheat was selling for $2.74 1/2 a bushel.

The federal proposal that grain margins be doubled is to be considered late today by the board of directors of the Chicago exchange.

The annual meeting is also the time for the election of the officers of the church. It is a democratic meeting in which each member of the church family may indicate by ballot his choice for officers of the church for the ensuing fiscal year.

UN CONVENES
WITH RUSSIA,
U. S. AT ODDSDIPLOMATIC LEADERSHIP OF THE WORLD IS AT STAKE

UNITED NATIONS HALL, FLUSHING, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(UP)—The second general assembly of the United Nations, sharply split between East and West, opens today in the midst of a raging, all-out diplomatic war between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The assembly meetings for the next eight or 10 weeks actually will be the forum in which the United States and the Soviet Union will fight for diplomatic leadership of the world. The U. S. will use it to try to mobilize world opinion against the Soviets.

Few delegates hope that the two-year running battle between the most powerful members of the United Nations—united only in name—will be resolved here. Many fear it will be intensified and hasten formal recognition of two worlds instead of the hoped-for one.

The assembly convenes at 11 a. m. EDT, to go through the usual opening formal ceremonies—speeches by New York's Mayor William D'Wyer and Oswald Aranha, president of the last special assembly meeting.

But those pleasant and warnings against continued diplomatic conflict will be short-lived. The delegates of 55 nations will meet again in the afternoon to elect their officers and touch off the first East versus West row.

Fery Australian foreign Minister Herbert V. Evatt, loudest and most vehement opponent of the big five veto power and of Russia's diplomatic tactics, appears to have the necessary votes including that of the U. S., for the assembly presidency. But he won't get a vote from the Soviet bloc which is futilely trying to push Polish Foreign Minister Zygmunt Modzelewski.

The best the Russians can hope for is its representation among the seven vice presidents and six main committee chairmanships.

The real fire works will start tomorrow when Secretary of State George C. Marshall, personally leading the U. S. delegation, will deliver a major address, setting forth his country's objectives. Marshall will try to grab the initiative and continue to keep the Russians on the defensive.

Marshall is expected to cite U. S. policy on most of the major issues before the assembly. The agenda runs to more than 70 items, but there are only about a dozen headlines, even though they virtually blanket the world.

Marshall decided to throw his personal prestige into this assembly meeting because he was convinced that the U. S. and the United States are near a diplomatic showdown.

The meetings will give Marshall a chance to test out his new "containment" policy which was evolved by his new long-range policy planner George F. Kennan for use against the Russians. A major tenet of that policy is to keep the initiative.

Demo Editors In Fall Meeting

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 16.—(INS)—The 1948 gubernatorial contest was being discussed today as the politicians prepared for the fall meeting of the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association at French Lick Friday and Saturday.

Hundreds of editors and publishers and party leaders have made reservations for the weekend gathering in the Orange county hills.

Social events will predominate Friday, with the more serious program scheduled for Saturday.

A breakfast of editors will be held Saturday morning, with Prof. Roy V. Peel, director of the Institute of Politics of Indiana University, as chief speaker. Prof. Peel served in the Office of Strategic Services, the highly confidential organization of World War II.

Afterwards, there will be a meeting of the Democratic state committee at which registration, the campaign for the Tenth District special congressional election and the municipal elections will be considered. Among the expected topics is the remarkable Democratic registration in Indianapolis where Al Feeney, Democrat, is said to have an excellent chance to be elected mayor.

A style show for women is scheduled Saturday afternoon. Former Governor Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, a wealthy oil man with national political possibilities, will be the chief speaker at the banquet Saturday night.

Marion T. Ayres, of Shelbyville, association president, will preside and short talks will be made by Frank M. McHale, national committeeman; Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, national committeewoman; Pless E. Greenlee, state chairman, and Mrs. Edna Bingham, state vice-chairman.

Those who go to French Lick hope to learn definitely whether former Governor Henry F. Schricker will consider running for governor. Insiders say the odds are against his entering the contest because of his excellent business future as vice-president of the Fletcher Trust Company of Indianapolis. His closest business associates say he will not run.

In that event, a number of editors will boost John A. Watkins, Bloomfield publisher and former state commander of the American Legion, for the nomination. Watkins gave the politicians a scare by threatening the carefully-prepared nomination of former Governor M. Clifford Townsend for senator in 1946.

Townsend is reported to have told friends that his health will not permit him to run for governor.

Others mentioned for the nomination are Shirley Wilcox, of New Albany, federal internal revenue collector for Indiana; Federal District Attorney Alex Campbell, of Fort Wayne, and E. Howard Caughran, of Indianapolis; former Senator Samuel D. Jackson; Congressman Ray Madden, of Gary, and Greenlee.

QUESTION FOR DEBATE
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 16.—"Resolved, that a Federal world government should be established" will be the intercollegiate debate proposition for 1947-48, is was announced today by Dr. P. E. Lull, director of forensic activities at Purdue and chairman of the National Committee on Intercollegiate Discussion and Debate.

The subject was chosen, Dr. Lull announces, from approximately 100 topics suggested by debates and debate coaches on the basis of a ballot in which 332 colleges and universities participated. By the same process, the committee selected the intercollegiate discussion subject for 1947-48 which will be "What Should be done to insure peaceful relations among the nations of the world?"

The committee was composed of members of four national forensic fraternities, Pi Kappa Delta, Delta Sigma Rho, Tau Kappa Alpha and Phi Rho Pi. Its personnel, in addition to Dr. Lull, consisted of Lionel Crocker, Denison University; W. Roy Dien, Ohio Wesleyan University; T. Earle Johnson, University of Alabama; G. A. Kuhlmann, St. John's University; Clifton Lines, General Beadle State Teachers College; R. D. McHaffey, Linfield College; Richard Murphy, University of Illinois; and Forrest Rose, Southeast Missouri State Teachers College.

GOVERNMENT STUDIES FOOD PRICE BOOSTS

The government launched multiple campaigns today to force grocery and meat prices down and find more food for a hungry world.

The problem was how to accomplish both. The law of supply and demand said prices would rise as demand increased. And demand appeared certain to step up with the government and public competing for available supplies.

The government attack on prices branched out in all directions. These were the new points of attack:

1. Attorney-General Tom Clark asked the people to report any price-fixing attempts to local district attorneys. He ordered his district attorneys to campaign against price agreements which keep the cost of living out of range.

2. The Commodities Exchange authority launched a "pressure campaign" to cut down grain speculations. It asked the nation's big grain exchanges to double margins in grain transactions. Margins are the down payments.

3. A congressional committee investigated high prices at Providence, R. I. It heard pleas for the return of price controls and an end to government support of farm prices.

4. Clinton Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, said the President's cabinet would meet Monday to discuss a price report and a report on the American export program.

The price picture turned international in scope. It hinged around foreign policy and the feeding of people faced with starvation.

The Agriculture Department estimated that 40 per cent of the saleable wheat crop would be exported. The CEA was concerned with the diminishing buying power of foreign dollars in American markets.

That tied in with the wheat market. After skittering at the end of last week, the wheat market soared skyward again yesterday. It climbed to $2.81 a bushel.

And wheat tied in with the general food price picture which depended largely upon the grain market. The corn crop will be small this year. Without corn to feed to livestock, farmers may feed wheat, raising the price of that grain even higher.

With the price of grain up, it was natural for prices of many food commodities to climb. If high-priced grain was fed to cattle and other livestock, meat on the hoof would climb. If livestock were brought to market thinner, meat would become scarcer. Prices would climb.

The same high grain prices would result in higher prices in butter, milk, eggs, bread and lard.

The campaign against buying high-priced foods continued to grow. Joseph Salerno, president of the Massachusetts state CIO, said unions could beat high food prices by buying groceries wholesale and selling it to members at cost.

In New York City, Mayor William P. O'Dwyer read a report from his special committee investigating the city's food costs, then proposed that the city return to its war-time policy of two meatless days weekly in public eating places. He suggested the plan as a method of combating rising prices.

Restaurant operators endorsed the plan. The NEW YORK Hotel Association was to discuss it today. O'Dwyer said he would name a committee of restaurant-owners and hotel men to work out the plan to eliminate meat from menus Tuesdays and Fridays.

The committee's report to O'Dwyer said food costs in the city had risen 40 per cent in the past 20 months.

Police Probe Double Death

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(UP)—From scanty clues, police attempted today to re-weave the story of a love affair that led to the death of Frank Ries, 40, and a beautiful red-haired woman who was believed to be his wife, Barbara.

Their nude bodies were found in a barricaded Loop hotel room yesterday.

Coroner A. L. Brodie said the couple apparently died from cyanide poisoning.

What details there were led police to believe the deaths were the result of a suicide pact. But authorities admitted the case might have been a combination of homicide and suicide.

House detectives at a Loop hotel found the bodies after maids had tried to enter the room for several hours. The door was bolted and barricaded with two chairs.

Pushing into the room, officers found the woman's body lying on the bed. Ries' body lay on the floor.

Police were unable to identify the woman positively. They said she probably was Ries' wife. A farewell note, written by the man, was found in her pocketbook. It was addressed to "Barbara Ries."

Ries was identified as a Los Angeles and Miami photographer from California and Florida driver's licenses.

Police said the farewell note indicated the two had separated and that the man, despondent because he could not locate her, had decided to take his life. They said the note suggested the two had discussed a suicide pact.

GIRL ON STAND IN MURDER TRIAL

SANTA ANA, Cal., Sept. 16.—(UP)—Beulah Louise Overell, 18, was scheduled to tell the jury today exactly what she did the day the state contends she and her fiancé, George (Bud) Gollum, 21, murdered her parents.

The college girl heiress took the stand unexpectedly late yesterday in defense of the state's charges that the young lovers murdered Mr. and Mrs. Walter Overell on their yacht to satisfy their "lust and greed."

She said that her mother had approved and encouraged her love for Gollum and that he was welcome on the yacht Mary B. where the elder Overells died six months ago.

She denied the truth of the testimony of her uncle, Emanuel Jungquist, that she immediately wanted possession of her mother's property after her death and wanted to make Gollum president of her father's finance company.

Trieste Becomes A Free State

TRIESTE, Sept. 16.—(UP)—The United States and Britain formally proclaimed Trieste a free state today and ordered liberal application of the death penalty to make it peaceful.

As ranking Allied officers British Maj. Gen. Terence Airy proclaimed Trieste a free city at 10 A. M. (3 a. m. EDT.) That was an hour after the Yugoslavs were supposed to have taken over Venezia-Giulia, which surrounds Trieste, except on the side toward the Mediterranean.

But Marshal Tito's swaggering troops took over Venezia-Giulia nine hours before they were supposed to, in a move officially described as a deliberate attempt to embarrass the U. S. and British armies.

Reading the proclamation that formally made Trieste a free state, General Airy announced that death would be the punishment from now on for unlawful possession of arms, assaulting Allied troops, inciting the people to insurrection, organizing public demonstrations and trying to overthrow authority.

If this decree had been in force yesterday, when five people were killed and more than 20 injured by bombs and in riots, many would be liable to death.

Almost at the same time wider application of the death penalty was ordered, the Communist-controlled Labor Confederation called a strike in a shipyard, a dockyard and a brewery as a protest against the machinegun killing of an 11-year-old girl Saturday night. It was expected that the strike would soon be made general.

Although February is called the month of presidents, only three U. S. presidents were born then; five were born in March and four in April.

WASHING MACHINE SALES BREAK ALL RECORDS

CHICAGO (UP)—The Ameri-

facturers Association says sales

ances broke the industry's all-

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 16.—
(UP)—The trial of Glenn Robinson entered its second day here today as the state continued its

to prove that the 29-year-old cab driver raped and then crushed
the skull of Mrs. Jeannette Reyman last June 24.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—
(UP)—The condition of Sen.
Kenneth McKellar, D., Tenn., was described today as "very satisfactory" by attaches at Bethesda Naval Hospital where the 78-year-old dean of the senate has been confined since last Tuesday.

McKellar was flown here from Atlantic City, N. J. where he suffered an "acute gastric upset." He was vacationing at the New Jersey resort when stricken.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(UP)—
Mass picketing of the strike-bound Bethlehem shipyards at Brooklyn, Hoboken, N. J., and Staten Island, N. Y., was resumed today after officials of the CIO shipbuilders union accused the company of attempting to break the strike.

The company made no comment on the charge.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(UP)—
A three-cent increase in bread
was predicted today following announcement that Canadian flour mills had boosted the price of flour $4 a barrel, nearly double the old price under controls abolished yesterday.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—(UP)— Four Bulgarians described as members of an official Bulgarian trading mission were held by the U. S. army today on suspicion of collusion and receiving automobiles stolen from Americans.
Criminal Investigation Division agents who arrested the Bulgarians said they believed they were at least "receivers" of American-owned cars which have been disappearing wholesale in recent weeks.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—
(UP) AFL Vice President Daniel
J. Tobin served notice on the National Labor Relations Board
today that he will seek an immediate showdown on the controversial non-communist affidavit ruling.
The white-haired, bespectacled
boss of the teamsters challenged
the board's right to refuse his union protection and privileges

under the Taft-Hartley law.

DARIEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—
(UP)—Charles A. Lindbergh
was a qualified voter here today,
and eligible to vote in the Oct.

tentment Island, is one of 93 new

a party preference.

(UP)—The war assets administration announced today it would accept sealed bids until noon
Monday on six high-crowned hats from the Spanish-American war. Stephen McCollum, WAA information officer at the Belle hiding for the last half century.

ROME, Sept. 16.—(UP)—
Eight hundred and fifty thousand and metal workers started a general strike today for no other reason than an objection to
"high prices," demonstrating Communism's grip on Italian labor.

TRIESTE Sept. 16.—(UP)—
An attempt by Yugoslav troops
to take over the city of Trieste
in violation of international agreements was disclosed today
in the wake of territorial readjustments provided for in the Italian peace treaty.

A handful of 12 American troops guarding an outpost near the Adriatic Port were credited officially with preventing a serious, major incident.

British Maj. Gen. Terence S.
Airey, commander of Allied forces in Venezia Giulia, disclosed to a news conference at Castle Duino that a Yugoslav detachment 2,000 strong attempted last night to by-pass United States outpost No. 5, situated on the road leading from Goriano to Aurissina and thence to Trieste.

Gen. Airey said that owing to the "firmness, good sense and tactful handling" of the situation by the 12 Americans, "unnecessary bloodshed was avoided."

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 16.—

58-year-old Quayaquil banker, declined a coalition offer of the interim Ecuadorian presidency and his action was followed today by postponement of the presidential elections.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—
(INS)—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R)
O., today wrote off the chances of any "real" economy by a Republican Congress until 1949,
when the GOP hopes to trim the pyramid of government agencies.

In a major speech on his western presidential stumping tour, Taft conceded that it is "impossible" to achieve government economy by "piecemeal" cuts in appropriations.

Taft planned to speak at greater length on the budget and tax reductions tonight at a GOP rally which local CIO unions have indicated they may heckle
with picket lines.

Bowling Expert In City Friday

Joe Wilman, one of the bowl-ing's all-time greats, will bring his magic bowling ball to Greencastle Friday, Sept. 19, to display his tenpin skill at Hale's Varsity Lanes.

Wilman, who hails from Berwyn, is one of today's No. 1 bowlers. He could automatically claim that distinction as the result of his three world's titles.

Just to prove the latter point,
we can take a quick look at Joe's teenpin achievements since he captured the national match
game crown in December, 1945.
The record reveals that Wilman won the 1946 Waibel lassis in St.
Louis with a count of 1,797 for eight games, a new classic
record; that he took the Anderson Classic in Moline, Ill., with a mark of 1,322 for six games, another record; and that he rolled the high season average in the Chicago Classic League, the Berwyn Major League and the Chicago All-Star League.

Wilman will roll three games
in the afternoon, starting at 2:30,
after which he will be available
for instructions and questions.
In the evening, he will roll six games, beginning at 7:30 p. m., against the best talent Maurice Hale, manager of the Varsity Lanes, can line up. He will then be available for questions.

OVER 2,300 EMPLOYEES SERVE "PUBLIC SERVICE"

...AND EACH "PUBLIC SERVICE" CRAFTSMAN IS BACKED UP WITH NEARLY $48,000 WORTH OF TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT

Electricity has become so commonplace . . . so much of our everyday living . . . that most of us take it for granted. It's just "something" that's always there when we flip a switch, or plug in a socket. And we don't give a thought to the planning . . . the many requirements . . . cost . . . and the work involved to make available our dependable electric service as we know it today.

The services of more than 2,300 Public Service Company people . . . many of them highly-skilled technicians . . . are required to operate the complex power system and associated operations. Day after day, and night after night, they are on the job, bringing light and power from the huge generating stations into our homes . . . stores . . . schools . . . farms and factories.

To keep the electric flow constant and plentiful, Public Service workmen must be, and are, well-equipped to handle their respective jobs. An investment of nearly $48,000 per each employee is required to provide him with the tools, machinery and equipment needed to keep you amply supplied with low-cost electricity.

HERE'S WHY EGGS ARE $1 A DOZEN

SHORTAGE AND PRESENT PEAK PRICES of grain, according to the Department of Agriculture, will cause poultry prices to continue to rise for the next six months, forcing egg prices—now at $1 a dozen in some localities—to a new record high. In the department's experimental farm elevator at Beltsville, Md., Miller Samuel Williams displays sample bags of corn and wheat, which are retailing for $3.05
and $2.95, respectively, per bushel. (International)

Baby Elephants Feature Of Five-Ring Circus

What is conceded to be the greatest circus attraction ever to be presented in the United States is the herd of baby elephants
just imported from India by Dailey Bros. 5-ring Circus. These little pachyderms will be one of the menagerie attractions when the circus shows here tomorrow.

A ruling by the British Government many years ago prohibits the export of any elephant under two years of age unless accompanied by native trainers
or mahouts. Up until this year, the youngest elephant ever imported to the United States was about three years old.

Seven of these babies arrived in New York on June 12 and with them as attendants were four Moslem mahouts. They created a lot of interest when unloaded and were the subject of much curiosity as they were walked through the streets of lower New York to the railroad yards.

Included in this herd is Con-
ta, 10 months old, and only 31 1/2 inches high. She is still too young to eat grain but is fed a gruel of rice, milk and rum. She is just starting to eat hay and peanuts
are taboo. She has already established herself as the pet of the circus and has been adopted by Lucy, the six-ton leader of the Dailey Bros. herd of 25 elephants.

The largest of the babies is Charlie, a male standing about 48 inches high and who has been trained to do a few simple tricks. The rest of the herd range in height from 36 inches to 40 inches. They are playful when no one is around but shy and timid with strangers.

Dailey Bros. Circus, which will reach the city early tomorrow
on its own train of double length steel cars is the only five-ring circus left on the road. All of the others went back to three rings
during the war but Dailey Bros.
added two more rings this spring.

A gigantic free menagerie of wild beasts gathered from the four corners of the earth is a featured attraction of the circus but is safe to assume that the seven baby elephants will create and hold most of the interest in this free collection of rare and unusual wild animals.

Show grounds will be at the west end of Walnut Street.

PRE-ASSEMBLY HUDDLE

Secretary of State George C. Marshall, just returned from Brazil, is shown at the United Nations headquarters in New York as he discusses the coming U. N. General Assembly meeting at Lake Success with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Warren Austin, U. S. representative to the United Nations. Secretary Marshall plans to direct the operations of U. S. delegates in the assembly and to appear as a member of the Political and Security Committee. Ex-Senator Warren is ambassador to the U. N. Security Council. (International Soundphoto).

U. S. SHIPS MILITARY SUPPLIES TO GREECE

CASES of shells, grenades and land mines are loaded aboard an Army transport in New York, one of the U. S. ships which, the Army reveals, has been sailing from Atlantic ports for the past month with American military supplies for Greece. (International Soundphoto).
